Dear Admiral Turner:

Thank you for your letter of May 10 expressing your satisfaction with the security procedures applicable to the courts created by the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act. As my letter indicated, I expect to issue them on May 18 at the same time I announce the designation of the judges.

In keeping with your request that the intelligence directives incorporated by reference in the procedures not be publicly released, I have instructed my staff to refer to you any request for them. As long as these unclassified documents will be made available to the public upon receipt of a proper request, I believe it is entirely appropriate to refer inquiries to the promulgating agency.

Cordially,

Warren E. Burger

Admiral Stansfield Turner
The Director of Central Intelligence
